PROCEDURE GUIDE FOR BIRTH CERTIFICATE LEGALIZATION

- BIRTH CERTIFICATE LEGALIZATION

Legalizing a birth certificate has become a mandatory administrative procedure for non-European Union citizens.

The French Government requires that citizens from countries which are related to the legalization of birth certificates certify the authenticity of their original birth certificate for certain administrative procedures such as Sécurité Sociale (health coverage) in France.

If you are a citizen from a country that requires legalization, please contact the French Consulate or the French embassy in your country and ask about the “légalisation de l’acte de naissance” procedure before leaving for France.

PLEASE SEE BELOW THE LIST OF COUNTRIES RELATED TO LEGALIZATION.

- BIRTH CERTIFICATE APOSTILLE

The French Government requires that citizens from countries which are related to birth certificates’ apostille certify the authenticity of their original birth certificate with an apostille for some administrative procedures, such as the Sécurité Sociale (university health coverage) in France. The apostille is considered as a simplified legalization.

If you are a citizen from a country that requires an apostille, please contact the appropriate authorities within your country (for the United States: Division of Business Services of your state’s Department of State) and ask how you can get an apostille on your birth certificate before leaving for France.

PLEASE SEE BELOW THE LIST OF COUNTRIES RELATED TO APOSTILLE.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- ✓ If the authorities at the French Consulate or the French embassy cannot legalize or provide you the apostille on your birth certificate before your departure, you will need to bring your original birth certificate to France.
- ✓ Before getting your birth certificate translated into French, you need to get it legalized or to get the apostille. Once the original document has been legalized or apostillé, you can get it translated.
- ✓ French authorities require that all translations be done by a sworn translator (get a list of approved translators from your nearest consulate or the French Embassy)
